

2023 ICBC Scholarship Competition Application

Sponsored by Colorado's Independent Community Banks and Independent Community Bankers of Colorado

Independent Community Bankers of Colorado (ICBC) will award at least five (5) $1,000 one-time, one-year scholarships, to be applied towards the cost of tuition, fees, and books at a public or private university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school. Awardees will be announced April 21, 2023. Payment will be made directly to the school following enrollment and after classes have begun. This is a statewide scholarship contest.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible, the student must be a full-time high school senior. The student must have applied to, and will attend, a Colorado (or contiguous state) public or private university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school after high school graduation. The student or his/her parent(s) or guardian(s) may not be an employee of the Independent Bankers of Colorado. In addition, due to the far reaching possible ramifications of Amendment 41, Ethics in Government, that amended Colorado's Constitution, if the student or his/her parent(s) work for any city, state or county office, you may not be eligible for this scholarship contest. Before applying, please consult with your trusted advisor on this issue.

Requirements

- Cumulative 3.0 GPA.
- Student must attend a university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school after high school graduation.
- Student or parent(s)/guardian(s) have a banking relationship at an ICBC member bank or branch for at least six months. To find out if your bank is an ICBC member call 720-607-7937 or visit <https://icbc Colo.org/scholarship> for a list.
 - Please note the following financial institutions are NOT members of the ICBC: All credit unions, Wells Fargo, Chase, Bank of America, CitiBank, Community Banks of Colorado, KeyBank, USBank, and Vectra
- Application must be complete, typed, and signed by a bank representative.
- Student must answer the assigned essay question.
- Deadline for submission to your bank is Friday, March 31, 2023.

Selection of Scholarship Recipients

ICBC's independent scholarship committee will review all applications from ICBC member banks and select at least five $1,000 scholarship recipients. Recipients will be announced April 29, 2023. Scholarships will not be based on financial need but on the quality of the application, references, and essay response. Awards will be presented at ICBC's Annual Convention on Thursday, September 21, 2023, at The Hythe, Vail.

Along with the completed application, the student must also submit:

1. Three (3) letters of recommendation, at least one must be from a school counselor or teacher and one personal reference.
2. Verification of acceptance to a public or private university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school. Students may also submit their ACT and/or SAT scores with their application.

Thank you for banking and visiting your Colorado independent community bank and participating in the ICBC scholarship program. We wish you the best in your college career and future.

For bank:

ICBC will award at least five $1,000 scholarships to deserving high school seniors, Applicant/s are divided into two categories – category 1: child of a bank employee or an employee of a bank and category 2: child of a bank customer (categories). This contest is available only to ICBC members. There is NO cost to participate in this program.

Keep this application. If you receive more than one application for either category, you must select one application to send to ICBC. One scholarship from each category may be submitted per bank (not per branch) so please coordinate with your locations. Once you have selected your application/s, either scan and email to mlewis@icbcolo.org or mail to: ICBC, 6732 W. Coal Mine Ave., #640, Littleton, CO 80123. For questions, contact Maelynn Lewis, 720-607-7937.

Applications must be received or postmarked on or before Friday, April 7, 2023.
